 - (d) otherwise carry out the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter and any other responsibilities or duties that the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

B. Structure and Membership

1. Number. Except as otherwise permitted by applicable Nasdaq rules, the Committee shall consist of at least two Board members.
2. Independence. Except as otherwise permitted by applicable Nasdaq rules, each Committee member shall be an "independent director" as defined by Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2) and a "non-employee director," as such term is defined from time to time in Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and the rules and regulations thereunder. In addition, in affirmatively determining the independence of any director who will serve on the Committee, the Board shall consider all factors specifically relevant to determining whether a director has a relationship to Conformis which is material to that director's ability to be independent from management in connection with the duties of a compensation committee member, including, but not limited to: (a) the source of compensation of the director, including any director, consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee paid by Conformis to the director; and (b) whether the director is affiliated with Conformis, a Conformis subsidiary, or an affiliate of a Conformis subsidiary.

3. Chair. Unless the Board elects a Committee Chair, the Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote.
4. Compensation. The compensation of Committee members shall be as determined by the Board.
5. Selection and Removal. The Board shall appoint Committee members upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and shall serve for such a term as the Board may determine. The Board may remove Committee members from the Committee, with or without cause.

The Committee shall review and approve, or recommend for approval by the Board, the compensation of Conformis' Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and other executive officers, including salary, bonus, and incentive compensation levels; deferred compensation; executive perquisites; equity compensation (including awards to induce employment); severance arrangements; change-in-control benefits and other forms of executive officer compensation. The CEO may not be present during voting or deliberations on his or her compensation. The Committee shall review and approve compensation arrangements for persons newly hired as executive officers of Conformis and compensation changes for employees promoted into those roles.

5. Plan Recommendations and Approvals. The Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive-compensation and equity-based plans that are subject to Board approval. In addition, the Committee, or a majority of the independent directors serving on the Board, shall approve any tax-qualified, non-discriminatory employee benefit plans (and any parallel nonqualified plans) for which stockholder approval is not sought and pursuant to which options or stock may be acquired by Conformis officers, directors, employees, or consultants.

6. Administration of Equity-Based Plans. The Committee shall exercise all rights, authority, and functions of the Board under all of Conformis' stock option, stock incentive, employee stock purchase, and other equity-based plans, including, without limitation, the authority to interpret the terms thereof, to grant options thereunder, and to make stock awards thereunder; provided, however, that, except as otherwise expressly authorized to do so by this charter, any such plan, or Board resolution, the Committee shall not be authorized to amend any such plan. To the extent permitted by, and consistent with, applicable law and the provisions of a given equity-based plan, the Committee may delegate to one or more executive officers of Conformis the power to grant options or other stock awards pursuant to such equity-based plan to employees of Conformis, or of any Conformis subsidiary, who are not Conformis directors or executive officers. The Committee, or a majority of the independent directors serving on the Board, shall approve any inducement awards to be granted in reliance on the exemption from stockholder approval contained in Nasdaq Rule 5635(c)(4).
7. Director Compensation. The Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to non-employee Board members.
8. Compensation Discussion and Analysis. The Committee shall review and discuss annually with management Conformis' "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K ("CD&A"), if applicable. 9. Committee Report. The Committee shall, if and to the extent required by the rules of the SEC, prepare and approve the annual Committee report to be included in Conformis' annual proxy or information statement or annual report on Form 10-K.
10. Say-on-Pay. The Committee shall review the results of stockholder advisory votes on executive compensation ("Say-on-Pay Votes") and, if appropriate, consider these results in connection with the determination of executive compensation and incentive-compensation and equity-based plans. The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board the frequency of Say-on-Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say-on-Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.
11. Risk Assessment. The Committee shall oversee the process for identifying and addressing any material risks relating to Conformis' compensation policies and practices. The Committee shall review Conformis' incentive compensation arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, and the Committee shall review and discuss at least annually (a) the relationship between Conformis' risk management policies and practices and compensation, and (b) policies and practices that could mitigate such risks.

12. Stock Ownership Guidelines. The Committee shall be responsible for monitoring the application of, and compliance with, Conformis' stock ownership guidelines applicable to Conformis' non-employee directors and executive officers.
13. Recoupment (Clawback) Policy. The Committee shall be responsible for administering, interpreting and construing Conformis' executive officer recoupment (clawback) policy.

15. Additional Duties. The Committee shall have such other duties as may be delegated from time to time by the Board.

D. Procedures and Administration

1. Meetings. The Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary in order to perform its responsibilities, but in no event less than four times per year. The Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause Conformis to pay the compensation of such advisors as established by the Committee. The Committee may select, or receive advice from, a compensation, legal, or other advisor only after taking into consideration the applicable factors affecting independence that are specified in Nasdaq Rule 5605(d)(3)(D).

6. Investigations. The Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any Conformis officer, employee, or advisor to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
